Transfer Degrees: The Associate of Arts (AA) and Associate of Science (AS) are transfer concentrations that are awarded without designation of major, but do follow curriculum transfer plans. These concentrations indicate that a student has completed a course of study that is essentially equivalent to the first two years of a baccalaureate degree.

Professional and Technical Degrees (Non-Transfer): The Associate of Applied Science (AAS) and Certificate of Applied Science degrees are awarded in specific career occupational fields. The following vocational-technical curricula are designed to prepare the student for immediate employment upon completion of a specific program. Course requirements for earning AAS degrees are very specific. Students seeking these degrees should follow the outlined programs exactly.
