

Operational Excellence

Lean as a Way of Doing Business: Improve Productivity, Quality, and Profits

Lean is a toolset, a management approach, and a philosophy that can dramatically improve the way you manage your business – whatever your business. Lean creates a better work environment for everyone!

Course Details

Date: Tuesday, June 18, 2018

Location: Dawson Community College

Time: 8 AM to 5 PM

300 College Drive

Glendive, Montana

Register: 406-377-9441

Price: $129.00

- discount for groups of 3 or more
- lunch included

Introduction to Lean as a Way of Doing Business

- This fun, engaging, and hands-on workshop demonstrates the power of applying Lean concepts and principles to a business, in a mix of Lean education and live simulation.

Cultivate a Culture of Continuous Improvement

- Learn how to see and mitigate wastes and become more competitive
- Positively impact employee morale and engagement
- Increase product and service quality and improve on-time delivery performance
- Increase production capacity and productivity
- Improve flow and space utilization
- Reduce inventory

All Businesses, at all Levels and Functions, Benefit from Lean

- Owners, managers, supervisors, and individual contributors
- Production/Operations
- Shipping and Logistics
- Office/Administrative
- Maintenance
- Finance & Accounting
- Engineering/R&D
- Sales and Marketing
- Human Resources

Growing Montana's Economy by Helping Manufacturers Succeed

www.montana.edu/mmec

For More Information Contact:

Sara Engle
Phone: 406-377-9441
E-mail: sengle@dawson.edu

Dawson Community College is an equal opportunity provider

Instructor

Alistair Stewart

Alistair is an alumnus of the US Department of Commerce's Manufacturing Extension Partnership (MEP) center in Chicago. He rejoined the MEP system in 2015 as MMEC's Specialist for Billings and then Bozeman. Alistair holds a Master of Science degree in Managerial Communication from Northwestern University. He is Montana's only Certified Exit Planning Advisor and holds additional professional credentials in Innovation, Lean, and Six Sigma. He serves as a Senior Advisor at an Investment Banking firm focused on the lower middle market, and as an Advisor to one of the country's leading Transition Readiness consultancies.